Free programming for families with children birth-4 years of age.

Welcome!

Starting Strong (formerly the St. James Assiniboia Parent Child Coalition) would like to welcome families in the community with children birth – 4 years of age to join us for free programs. We feature fun and engaging activities that support the importance of play in promoting healthy child development. Our staff provide opportunities for skill development through literacy, numeracy, physical activity, outdoor play, social interaction and so much more! Recognizing parents as the first and most important teachers in a child's life, all programs are designed for parents/ caregivers and child to participate together to ensure all children reach their full potential.

REMINDER in wet weather to please bring inside shoes to wear while attending programs.

Play'n Learn offers a warm, friendly and nurturing environment for families with children birth – 4 years of age. This program provides
